REPORT

Date February 24, 1937

Subject... Communication dated 9.2.37 from the Netherlands Consulate-General
... regarding Miss Alexandra Eichenbaum.

Made by D.S.I. Makaroff Forwarded by J. Boyne D.S.I.

Miss Alexandra Michailovna Eichenbaum, Russian Jewess, was born on December 29, 1907 at Warsaw, Poland.

In 1918 she came to Shanghai from Harbin together with her father and has since been residing in this city. She received her education in one of the local convents.

From 1926 to 1928 she was employed as a steno-typist
with Brewer & Co., Manufacturing Chemists and Wholesale Druggists, 5 Szechuen Road. Towards the end of 1928 the above company went into liquidation and Miss Eichenbaum secured the position of a secretary with Messrs. Swain & Co., Leaf Tobacco Dealers, No. 1 Canton Road, in which capacity
she worked for the following two years.

During the period from 1932 to 1934 she worked with the Carolina Leaf Tobacco Co., 3 Museum Road, after which she joined the Australian Produce Co., 320 Szechuen Road, where she was employed until 1935. From 1935 to the end of 1936
she held the position of a secretary with the Sherwin Williams Co., 113 Kiukiang Road.

Miss Eichenbaum's present employer, Mr. W.E. Haarmann, is known to the local German Consulate-General as a general manufacturers' representative in the Far East who occasionally visits Shanghai in the course of his business. It is reported that he was divorced or is living separately from his wife, an American. Nothing detrimental is known by the Consulate regarding him.

Miss Eichenbaum's father, who was a well known local merchant, died about two years ago in Hongkong.

She is registered with the Russian Emigrants' Committee, 112/1 Maulmain Road.

J. Van den Berg, Esq.,
Netherlands Consulate-General,
Shanghai.

Sir,

I have the honour to refer to your letter No. 485, dated 9th February, 1937, and to inform you that Miss Alexandra Michailovna Eichenbaum, Russian Jewess, was born on December 29, 1907, at Warsaw, Poland. She came to Shanghai from Harbin in 1928 and has since been residing in this city. She is registered with the Russian Emigrants' Committee, 118 1/2 Neulmeim Road. From 1926 until the end of 1936, she was employed as a stone-typist or secretary with various local firms, including the Carolina Leaf Tobacco Co., 3 Museum Road, the Australian Produce Co., 320 Szechuen Road, and Sherwin Williams Co., 113 Khukiang Road. Her present employer, Mr. W.M. Neermann, is known to the local German Consulate-General as a general manufacturers' representative in the Far East and occasionally visits Shanghai in the course of his business.

Miss Eichenbaum's father was a well known local merchant who died in Hongkong about the same time.

Nothing is known against Miss Eichenbaum, either politically or criminally.

I have the honour to be,

Yours sincerely,

(Sd) E. M. Neermann

SHANGHAI
S. I. REGISTRY
No. S. B. D. 7293
Date 16 2 37

Sir,

Received a B. Rep. 16/2/37

I have the honour to inform you that Miss Alexandra Eichenbaum has applied to this Consulate for a visé for admission into the Netherlands Indies.

She is in possession of a passport No. 311884/7298 issued by the Bureau of Public Safety at Shanghai on the 17th June 1936.

According to her passport she was born in Warsaw in 1907.

She states to be secretary to Mr. W. E. Haarmann, a German, who is a factory representative for the Far East.

Miss Eichenbaum resides in Shanghai at 1377 Avenue Road, apartment 315, and intends to leave for Manila at the end of this month together with Mr. Haarmann.

They will stay for about 2 weeks only in the Netherlands Indies.

I should be much obliged to you if you would let me know, if possible, whether anything is known against her from a political or moral point of view.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Ammer
Consul.

Majour K. M. Bourne,
Officer i/c Special Branch,
Shanghai Municipal Police,
SHANGHAI.
